

The Transition Academy provided not only the support for my son to become independent in the community, there was support for me as a parent to let go and have faith that he had been given the necessary supports and training to be successful navigating the world on his own. I am eternally grateful to Richard and the folks at Transition Academy for opening my eyes to the possibilities of the life my son can and does lead.

Shout it from the rooftops!

Nancy Young

2/11/2010

Check out Andrew on the Redmond Reporter

<http://www.redmond-reporter.com/lifestyle/93618759.html>

<http://blogs.pnwlocalnews.com/focusnorthwest/andrew-young/713/>